

Vertoro is committed to protecting your privacy on this website. Please read this Privacy Statement carefully so that you understand how we collect and use your personal data.

General

This Privacy Statement applies to all personal information collected and used by Vertoro responsible for the relevant part of the website. The Privacy Statement is based on the Vertoro Code for Customers, Suppliers and Business Partners. Vertoro is responsible for the relevant part of the website is hereinafter referred to as "Vertoro".

Vertoro respects your privacy and complies with the provisions of the Dutch Act on the Processing of Personal Data ('AVG-wetgeving').

Cookies

We shall only store so-called "cookies" on your computer when you have provided us with your consent by clicking on the appropriate button(s) during your visit of our website. Cookies are small text files that your browser stores locally on your computer. Cookies allow us to recognize your computer the next time you visit us. By doing so, Vertoro is able to improve user-friendliness of the website and to adjust the website to your needs. Most internet browsers are set to accept these cookies automatically.

The type of personal information we collect as a result of a cookie is specific to your computer and may include the Internet Protocol (IP) address, the date and time you access our website and what parts of the website are visited. We collect the foregoing personal information to monitor the usage and usefulness of our website, for statistical purposes and to send you information about our company and our (new) products and services, which suit your interest.

You may set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie or to refuse receiving it. You can also withdraw your consent at all times by re-entering our website and selecting the right options. By changing settings, you can also determine that your browser will not accept cookies from this website. Be aware that in such events you may no longer be able to use all the possibilities and features of our website.

Collection of data, purpose and recipients

We collect personal data when you provide it to us (e.g. name, address, postal code, city, phone number and e-mail address), through registration, completion of forms or e-mails, as part of an order for products or services, inquiries or requests or other situations in which you have chosen to provide personal information to us.

Your data shall be processed for the purposes of realization of any agreement, between you and Vertoro, fulfilling a request from you for information or advice, meeting statutory or other legal requirements, providing an optimal service and sending you information about our company and our (new) products or services, which suit your interest.

Your personal data will only be provided to (or used on behalf of) third parties for direct marketing purposes after you have been offered the opportunity to object thereto. These third parties will not use your personal information for any other purposes than what we have agreed with them, within the scope of the Vertoro Code for Customers, Suppliers and Business Partners.

Vertoro requests those third parties to implement adequate levels of protection in order to safeguard your personal information. Your personal data will not be transferred to parties located in countries outside the European Economic Area, which do not have an adequate level of protection according to the Vertoro Code for Customers, Suppliers and Business Partners.

Linked sites

Please be aware that the Vertoro Privacy Statement does not apply to other non-Vertoro websites, also:

- if you access these other sites using a link on our website; or
- if you link to our site from another website.

Right to access / rectification / object

At all times you can request access to and/or rectification and/or deletion of your data if such data are incorrect or irrelevant for the mentioned purposes. For these purposes please send us your request for access, correction or removal of your personal data.

At all times you can object against the use of your data for direct marketing purposes.

Retention period

Vertoro will not retain the personal data that are obtained through this website for longer than necessary, unless the data has to be kept for a longer period according to the Vertoro Code for Customers, Suppliers and Business Partners.

Security of your data

The storage and transfer of your data through the internet are secured by means of the current usual techniques.
